

Summer Camp 2011 – Junior Counselor Information and Sign Up

Being a Summer Camp Junior Counselor is a privilege and could be considered your first “real” job! Please read this information and if you would like to work at the barn this summer, complete the form and return it to Kelly L.

Criteria: You must be at least 12 years old. Exception – if you worked last year, but are still under 12 years old – you can work this year. If you will be turning 12 years old this summer – you can work. If you don’t meet these criteria, but still want to be considered – speak to Kim or Kelly L. You must be able to completely tack a horse, without any assistance!

You must be prepared to do any and all tasks requested of you by Kim or ANY of the Senior Counselors.

You will be assigned a camper. You must be prepared to work with any and all campers. You cannot have favorites.

You CANNOT use your cell phone (for calls or texting) during camp, except during the lunch break.

A Senior Counselor or Kim should know your location at all times during camp – no attempting to hide to avoid tasks.

Absolutely NO DRAMA between counselors or campers will be tolerated! You must have a GOOD attitude at all times.

If any of the Senior Counselors or Kim observes any drama, bad attitude, or disrespect to them, other counselors, or campers – you will be given a verbal warning. If there is a second time – you will be sent home for the remainder of that week. If there is a third time – you will not be allowed to be a counselor for the remainder of the summer.

I have read and understand the guidelines for being a Junior Counselor at Summer Camp.

As the parent or guardian of _____, I have read the above guidelines for being a Junior Counselor. I will ensure that my counselor arrives and departs camp on time. I understand that they could be asked to leave camp, if their behavior is unacceptable.

2011 Summer Camp Dates

Each “Full Day” week of camp you work (all 5 days) is worth $100 towards Jr. Counselor camp. Each “Half-Day” week of camp you work (all 5 days) is worth $50 towards Jr. Counselor camp. If you don’t work enough weeks – you can pay the difference to attend camp. The weeks you work at Camp ONLY earn you Jr. Counselor camp – it cannot be applied towards lessons or any other activities at the barn.

Summer camp slots are filled based on the number of counselors available. If you sign up for a week – you are expected to be here the entire week. Allowances can be made for a doctor or dentist appointment during camp.
